HO FOR FREE TRADE

But the Balance of Power in the Senate Will Be With the Farmers'

New York, Nov. 10 .- More than torty-eight hours after the poils have closed it is still impossible to give the status of the several parties in the tifty-inird congress officially. The de-Velopments of the day tend to confirm, to the point of absolute certainty, the statement made originally in the United Press dispatches that the baiwould be held by the third party, although by a narrow margin. The democrats will gain senators in New York, Wisconsib. Wyoming and Cali-forms, giving them 43. Republicans as to sugar which may well be reserved will return a successor to Sen-ator Paddock from Nebraska and of necessity, put wool and other raw attor Paddock from Nebraska and of necessity, put wool and other raw material on the free list, reduce the although the legislature in this state rates on finished products to match in is stil claimed by the Farmers Alliance. The legislatures of Minnesota and Michigan have republican majorities, struct the ways and means committee The republican strength in the senate is thus reduced to forty-tree, leaving to Senators Pfeffer, Kyle and stewart, who will succeed nime if from Newada, the power to control the organization by alliance with either of the parties. The expectation is that they will operate with the democrats in this matter. Up to indingst the result in the congressional districts in New Hampshire, Onio, Michigan, Min-nesota, Nebraska, Kansas and Califorhis was unsettled, the figures not having been fully reported. The probaburties are that the state delegations in the next house will stand as follows:

The Consul General Tries to Become In terviewed, and Failing, Concludes to Answer Questions.

London, Nov. 10 .- Consul General New, in discussing the result of the election in America today, said: "There is no accounting for the landslide. I don't understand it. By the way what Baby Farming Family Charged with the is the latest news from Japan?"

Omitting to reply to the question, the correspondent went on to ask Mr. New wny, in his opinion, Indiana and Illinoise had given a democratic majority.

Mr. New-"Ab, yes; the fact is, Indiana was democratic for fifteen years, with the exception of the years when General Garfield and General Harrison were elected to the presidency. The legislature is largely demo cratic. As to Illinois, it appears that the foreign vote in Chicago has carried that state for the democracy. The success of the Farmer's Alhance, or Pen-ple's party, is certainly amazing. It is likely that they have carried three or four western states on the silver ques n t willing to go as far as the alliance people in regard to silver. Hence, Colorado has revenged herself. By the way, what did you think of the lord mayor's showing?"

The correspondent forgot to reply to liberal commercial policy and that we have invited them to come here for charge with the question, "Do you exsome more substantial purpose than to pect any radical tariff legislation?" Mr. New: "In regard to the tariff any new legislation would be impossible under the next congress which meets, according to law, in December, 1893; and any legislation then enacted would become operative only in the subse-quent year. The same which is apparently republican would defeat any radical attempt to change the tariff."

Consul General New was asked if he proposed to resign. He said that he proposed to remain in office until his term expired. He added that he attributed the surprising victory in New York to the efforts of Tammany hall.

CHARY OF OPINIONS.

MILITARY BILL STICKS.

Bundesrath Wants to Know About the Beer and Tobacco Taxes.

Berlis, Nov. 10 .- The military bill has not yet passed the Bundesrath. It has stuck fast on the opposition of Bavaria and two other states, as they did not wish to commit themselves to it before knowing whence the imperial government expects to get $16,000,000 annually, necessary to realize its prosurances of its intention as to beer and tobacco taxes, there is likely to be a deadlock. This state of affairs embarrasses Chancellor Von Caprivi, as the government's financial plans have been kept purely in the dark in order that they .. ight not complicate the battle of the parties round the technical porerally supposed that the bill would be got through the Bundesrath without difficulty, hence the new complications have given courage to the radicals and liberals who are opposing it.

The State Senate and House Is Republican

BY OVERWHELMING MAJORITIES

Twenty Votes in the Upper House and Sixty-Nine in the Lower-Successful Candidates.

The next house of state representatives will be solidly republican. The next state senate will be solidly republican. Michigan will maintain her record by selecting a republican to represent her in the United States senate.

No fault can be found with the way in which Detroit has contributed to this grand result. A careful count, with all the returns in, shows that nine of the ten representatives from this city will be republicans. The lone democrat who succeeded in crawling in under the canvas was Rusch and he was successful only because of the strong support accorded him by the saloonkeepers. As it was, he got in just by the skin of his teeth. The senate will consist of the follow. ing members, democrate being designated by an asterisk.
